St. Clair County River Day events announced

The fifth annual St. Clair County River Day has 11 free events planned for Saturday, June 13, across the rivers, lakes and bays of St. Clair County.

River Day gives residents the chance to celebrate, enhance and protect the waters of St. Clair County. The event corresponds with Michigan Free Fishing Weekend, so all state residents can fish without a license.

Below is a list of events and locations offered throughout St. Clair County. Full details including times and contact information is available online at www.RiverDayFun.com.

Fishing events:

- Kids Fishing Derby, Pine Shores Golf Course, St. Clair.
- Vantage Point Fishing Seminar, Vantage Point Maritime Center, Port Huron.

River cleanups:

- Marine City Drain cleanup, Algonac State Park, Algonac.
- Pine River cleanup, Rattle Run Bridge and Fred Moore Highway, St. Clair Township.
- Stocks Creek cleanup, Chippewa Middle School, Port Huron Township.
- Household hazardous waste collection, Clay Township Fire Department.

Water exploration events:

- BP Nature Trail and Turtle Beach Hike, corner of Carney Road and Fred Moore Highway, St. Clair.
- Columbus County Park guided tour, Columbus Township.
- Pine River canoe rentals, St. Clair Boat Harbor, St. Clair.
- Tree House picnic party, at Pine River Nature Center, Goodells.
- Water reclamation facility tours, Port Huron.

Also, two events are planned for Saturday, June 6:

- Black River Canoe and Kayak Race — At the Riverside Boat Launch, Port Huron.
- Liteline Classic Kids Fishing Clinic — at the W.P. Thompson Pond, Port Huron Township.
